MEDITATION: In modern terms, happiness usually refers to laughter—an emotional response to life's circumstances. It is worth noting that there is no reference in the four Gospels to Jesus laughing (though He undoubtedly did when appropriate). Far more prevalent in Scripture is the notion of joy and the idea of contentment. Contentment is the idea of finding joy in the will of God whatever the circumstance. ~ Dr. David Jeremiah

PROCLAIMING THE WORD

David praised the LORD in the presence of the whole assembly, saying, "Praise be to you, LORD, the God of our father Israel, from everlasting to everlasting. Yours, LORD, is the greatness and the power and the glory and the majesty and the splendor, for everything in heaven and earth is yours. Yours, LORD, is the kingdom; you are exalted as head over all. Wealth and honor come from you; you are the ruler of all things. In your hands are strength and power to exalt and give strength to all. Now, our God, we give you thanks, and praise your glorious name. 1 Chronicles 29:10-13

Peace We Have in God

There's a peace we have in knowing God
 And lifting our hearts in prayer;
 A peace that comforts amid life's trials,
 Offering His mercy, love and care.
 I know it's difficult to explain
 Our Father's great love for us;
 But if we believe in His kindness and grace,
 There's no need to worry and fuss.
 He extends to all a peaceful spirit
 As we look to Him above;
 Just like He delivered Noah from the flood,
 He'll send us, to, a cooing dove.
 There's a peace we have in knowing God –
 Only trust His Word and simply obey.
 Then by your side He will abide –
 What away to greet the day!
