Second Sunday in Lent

All visitors are encouraged to fill out the visitor cards in the pews and drop them in the offering plate at the usher's podium. Thank you.

OFFICIATING	PASTOR RICK ZICKEFOOSE
WORSHIP LEADER	TERESA PETERSON
GREETINGS & CALL TO WORSHIP	WENDY LYNN

MEDITATION: Proverbs offers a lot of advice for living wisely, and not being easily offended is one of its gems. In fact, it says “sensible people...earn respect by overlooking wrongs” (19:11 NLT). Choosing not to get offended and learning to “control [our] temper” (v.11 NLT) can bring us honor. It may require patience and “wisdom” (v.8), but the rewards also are well worth getting over ourselves and choosing to love others. ~ Katara Patton

PROCLAIMING THE WORD

But God has put the body together, giving greater honor to the parts that lacked it, so that there should be no division in the body, but that its parts should have equal concern for each other. If one part suffers, every part suffers with it; if one part is honored, every part rejoices with it.
 1 Corinthians 12:24-26

A Merciful God

*You have an ocean of mercy,
 Mercy for us, O Lord;
 You're ne're depleted of mercy,
 There's always more and more.
 To thousands of all who love You
 And Your commandments keep,
 You show to each Your mercy...
 A merciful God, indeed.
 Though we might stray from Your pathway,
 Us, You will never forsake;
 You will abundantly pardon,
 To mercy You're the gate.
 New are Your mercies each morning,
 Mercy we need anew;
 We will rejoice and be thankful
 For mercies shown by You.

Jesus, being perfect in all aspects, bridged the gap between God and man, by becoming the only God-Man – completely divine, yet completely human at the same time.
