GREETINGS &amp; CALL TO WORSHIP	CHUCK CLIFTON

MEDITATION: Our way of worshipping God, not just in a temple but every day of our lives, has to do with justice, with doing good to other people without looking at “competition.” A love of justice is born from a heart that trusts that God is in control, even when appearances say otherwise. By focusing on faithfulness and divine justice, we find peace and contentment that the world cannot offer. ~ Samuel Estrella Molina

(The Offering Plate is placed at the Usher's podium.)

PROCLAIMING THE WORD

Blessed is the one who does not walk in step with the wicked or stand in the way that sinners take or sit in the company of mockers, but whose delight is in the law of the Lord, and who meditates on his law day and night. That person is like a tree planted by streams of water, which yields its fruit in season and whose leaf does not wither—whatever they do prospers. Psalm 1:1-3

Peace

*My home is never empty,
 Although I am alone;
 I hear the voices of angels,
 To God their love intones!
 I feel His very presence
 In wind and storm or rain
 That beats upon my window
 And quiets all my pain!
 I see His face in every nook,
 Each cranny of my room;
 I know He's ever near to me
 To chase away my secret gloom.
 I'm sure He'll never leave me;
 His promise He'll fulfill –
 To keep me close, in home and heart,
 And softly whisper, “Peace – Be still.”
